SAN GIORGIO'S ISLAND

A treasure chest in an island far from tourist itineraries, magical and silent. Starting from the Basilica of San Giorgio, built on a Palladio's project where you can find several artworks of Tintoretto, towards the Basilica's bell tower where you can admire Venice in all its splendor, to the former Benedictine convent, now home to the Cini Foundation.

Guided tours of the monumental complex of the Giorgio Cini Foundation are available with a visit to the two cloisters, the Palladian refectory with the Wedding at Cana, the photo room, the Staircase and the Longhena Library, the New Manica Lunga library and the Borges Labyrinth.

18TH CENTURY VENICE MUSEUM PASS

Antique furnitures, paintings, perfumes and clothes. Visit the magnificent halls of Palazzo Mocenigo, the perfume and costume museum, testimony of the incredible commercial and cultural exchange of Venice with distant lands, and Ca' Rezzonico, the wonderful palace that now houses the Museum of 18th-century Venice.
